

I am adamantly opposed to the weakening of the "Do Not Call" law. I've noticed a dramatic reduction in the number of those annoying unsolicited sales calls! I would never purchase a product or service or make a donation through a telemarketing firm. Those particular calls just wind up being an intrusion of my valuable time!